WRITTEN MEDIATION (5 marks)

Your Italian flatmate Giuseppina, who is a child psychologist, is doing a project on teenage attitudes. She has come across a letter on Facebook but has problems understanding it. Her level of English is not as good as yours, and she needs your help. Read her note and write her a message (about 80 words) summarising the letter and explaining its purpose.

Hi!

I've read this letter on Facebook but I am not sure if I understand it.

I'm not going to see you today 😞
Could you leave me a message on my notebook summarising its content and explaining its purpose, please?

Thank you!
Giuseppina 😊

Dear Aaron,

Since you seem to have forgotten you are only 13 and I'M your mother, I guess you will need a lesson in independence. Also, as you threw in my face that you are making money now, it will be easier for you to buy back all the items I bought for you in the past.

If you would like your lamp/light bulbs or access to the Internet, you will need to pay your share of costs.

Rent - $430

Electricity - $116

Internet - $21

Food - $150

Also, you will need to empty the trash Mon, Wed and Friday, as well as sweep and vacuum those days. You will need to keep your bathroom clean weekly, prepare your own meals, and clean up after yourself. If you fail to do so, I will charge you a $30 maid fee for every day I have to do it.

If you decide you would rather be my CHILD again, instead of my roommate, we can renegotiate terms.

Love,

Mom
